You have provided true, correct and complete information regarding your income as listed on the attached forms and/or written or printed summaries. You will retain for four years all the documents, receipts, cancelled checks and other records required to substantiate the items of income and expense claimed on your return.

You have provided us true, correct and complete information regarding the amounts you claimed as tax deductions, and have maintained written documentation supporting all amounts, including log books and receipts. You understand that taxing authorities may examine the returns, that documentation should be retained to support the information provided to us, especially meals, gifts, computer use, cell phone use, business travel and entertainment deductions, business use percentage of autos and other assets, barter activities, and the required

You are responsible for the proper recording of transactions in the books of accounts, for the safeguarding of assets, and for the substantial accuracy of the financial records. You represent that the information you are supplying to Acuity Business & Tax Advisors, LLC is accurate and complete to the best of your knowledge and your financial information is supported by records as required by law. We may require clarification or additional information. This may be necessary to prove the accuracy and completeness of the returns to a taxing authority. We are not responsible for disallowed deductions, or the inclusion of additional unreported income or any resulting taxes, penalties or interest.

You understand that you will be charged an additional fee if we are asked to assist or represent you in a tax examination or inquiry. You understand that, in the event of preparer error, you are responsible for additional tax, penalty and interest that may be due, but our responsibility is to request abatement and waiver for any penalty that the IRS, state or local taxing authorities may assess.

Your returns may be selected for review by the taxing authorities. Any proposed adjustments by the examining agent are subject to certain rights of appeal. In the event of such government tax examination, we will be available upon request to represent you and will render additional invoices for the time and expenses incurred.

You will contact us immediately if you discover additional information that will lead to a change in your return, or if you receive any letters from the IRS, state or local taxing authorities.

We will use our judgment to resolve questions in your favor where a tax law is unclear or if there is a reasonable justification for doing so. Whenever we are aware that a possibility of applicable tax law is unclear, or that there are conflicting interpretations of the law by authorities (e.g., tax agencies and courts), we will explain the possible positions that may be taken on your return. We will follow whatever position you request, so long as it is consistent with the codes and regulations and interpretations that have been promulgated. If the IRS should later contest the position taken, there may be an assessment of additional tax plus interest and penalties. We assume no liability for any such additional penalties or assessments.

Our bill will be due and payable upon completion of these returns, and additional services will not be performed until the bill for these services is paid in full. You understand that your bill will be based upon our standard billing rates. A late payment charge of one and one-half percent per month will be assessed on any unpaid balance after deduction of current payments, credits and allowances made within 30 days of date of billing. This is an Annual Percentage Rate of eighteen percent (18%).
